This Sunday's Readings The Lord promises us wisdom and eloquence in the face of this world's hostility. Let the simple goodness of our lives witness to the goodness of God.

First Reading *Malachi 3:19-20 Like the power of the sun, God's justice shines on the virtuous and burns up the wicked.

Second Reading *2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 By word and example Paul shows us how to conduct our lives.

Gospel *Luke 21:5-19 Jesus promises the Spirit to inspire us in times of hardship and trouble.

Message from Father Peter: When I was in Lourdes earlier this year I saw a statue the like of which I had never seen before. Regrettably I didn't buy it, but when I was telling a Parishioner about it they very kindly sourced one and presented it to me (many thanks and blessing to you!). The Statue is of the hand of Jesus, bearing the wound of one of the nails of crucifixion. On the top of the thumb is a figure of the child Jesus, followed, on each finger, by images of Joseph, Mary, and then Mary's Parents, Jesus' earthly Grand-parents, Joachim and Anne, with angels at the bottom carrying the instruments of the Crucifixion. The Statue is a popular devotion from Mexico, apparently, and is known as 'La Mano Poderosa', the Powerful Hand, or 'las Cinco Personas', the Five Persons. Prayers to be recited in front of the Powerful Hand often focus on the Hand of God being able to wisely influence our own actions, and those of events around us, especially in tempestuous times. However, the Statue appeals to me especially because it is an extension of the Holy Family which we celebrate at Christmas, with the inclusion of Joachim and Ann. It makes me think about how they must have pondered the events of the birth of Jesus, perhaps with the confusion of Joseph or the immediate willingness of Mary. I'll place the Statue on the Lady Altar at SP's this week, and SJ's next week, and perhaps you might take the time to say this wonderful prayer of Benedict XVI for our Grandparents. It's rather good. Lord Jesus, born of the Virgin Mary, daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne, look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect and support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble ideals, living treasures of sound religious traditions. Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and roles of grandparents. Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen!
