This Sunday's Readings Through our baptism we have been claimed for Christ. As we gather together in his name we remember our rebirth in grace and our mission to prepare the way of the Lord.

First Reading Isaiah 11:1-10 When the Messiah comes a new era of peace with justice shall dawn. Enemies will become friends and all will have knowledge of the Lord.

Second Reading Romans 15:4-9 Members of the Christian community are to be friends to one another just as Christ has befriended us. This will give God glory and lead the nations to sing God's praise.

Gospel Matthew 3:1-12 John the Baptist appears in the desert wearing simple clothes and eating only food that could be found in the wilderness. He is not interested in power or glory but in preparing hearts for the coming of the Lord.

Message from Fr. Peter: So as we begin celebrating this New Year in the life of the Church, so we begin, this Monday, celebrating the life of Our Lady, Feasts of whom joyfully take us through the year, right up to her Glorious Assumption and Crowning as Queen of Heaven. And we begin celebrating the life of our Lady indeed from it's very beginning with the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, the doctrine, promulgated only in 1854 by Pope Pius IX, though spoken of from earliest times, and theologically widely discussed in the Middle Ages, and possibly even referenced by the Angel Gabriel who greeted Mary as 'Full of Grace', that Mary was conceived without the stain of Original Sin. This was granted to Mary through the grace her Son won for us on the cross, and is known as 'prevenient grace' as it was given to Mary before the event of the crucifixion in time, an incredibly honour for Mary, and demonstrating to us how much our salvation is always at the heart of God's plan for us. The whole of Advent is about the beginnings of our Salvation, from the prophecies of Isaiah about the coming Messiah who was prepared to be a Suffering Servant on the cross for us, to the moment of the Annunciation when Mary consented to being the Servant of the Lord, through to the birth of Jesus itself, the life that would change our lives. Mary's Immaculate Conception shows to us how God can supernaturally make everything perfect for the birth of His Son, this assuring our salvation. How wonderful for us, and for Mary on this great feast. Mass for the Feast on Monday is at SP's at 9am, and we have Vespers of the Feast at SJ's on Monday evening. This is the opening prayer for Mass on Monday, which beautifully explains to us in the form of prayer this beautiful teaching. O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin prepared a worthy dwelling for your Son, grant, we pray, that, as you preserved her from every stain by virtue of the Death of your Son, which you foresaw, so, through her intercession, we, too, may be cleansed and admitted to your presence. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
