This Sunday's Readings A new dawn breaks on our journey with God as we enter this time of Advent. Called together to pray, to listen, to share and to be fed, we open our hearts to the coming of Christ.

First Reading Isaiah 2:1-5 God's future is for all people. In God's reign all divisions will be broken down, strife will be healed and harmony will flourish.

Second Reading Romans 13:11-14 The early Christians are reminded to stay focused on the life of the Gospel. Anything that is done in darkness should be left behind - followers of Jesus live in the light.

Gospel Matthew 24:37-44 Jesus tells many stories to describe the need to be alert and ready for the coming of the Son of Man.

Message from Fr. Peter: And a very Happy New Year to you all as we begin a new Year in the life of the Church. Today we begin the beautiful season of Advent – my favourite Season in the Year of the Church, yet one which is somewhat sadly always rushed, and one of the busiest, as we all run around preparing for Christmas, not always taking the time to pause and reflect about what we are truly preparing for. The readings for this season, both on Sundays and Weekdays really do draw us into the beauty of the four weeks, as we try to get into the spirit of the people of old awaiting the expected arrival of the Messiah. In this Year of Matthew, the Sunday Gospels will speak about the coming of the Son of Man, and his heralding by John the Baptist. For the first few weekdays we take on the spirit of the prophets who waited and longed for the Messiah, who would free them from evil and deliver them from their enemies. Then, in the middle of next week we look to the person of John the Baptist and his call to ‘Prepare ye the way of the Lord’, not least Christ’s own words about his elder cousin, until, finally, from December 17th we really begin the Christmas story delving into the heart and mind of our Blessed Mother Mary, as she looked forward to the birth of her Son, along with the other protagonists in the infancy narratives of Jesus. With such beautiful readings to help us at our Masses, along with our celebrations on Mondays of Evening Prayer, as well as our school carol services, and our own Children’s Nativity, let’s make this Season of Advent a real spiritual time of preparation – alongside our material preparations – so that in every way possible we are truly ready to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Here is a beautiful Advent Prayer by Henri Nouwen. Lord Jesus, Master of both the light and the darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas. We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day. We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us. We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kingdom. We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence. We are your people, walking in darkness, yet seeking the light. To you we say, ‘Come Lord Jesus!’
