This Sunday's Readings: Worship literally means giving God what God is worth: that is, what rightfully belongs to God. In this service we think about our responsibility to God and we renew our commitment to it in the Mass.

First Reading Isaiah 5:1-7 The prophet likens God's people to a carefully tended vineyard that disappointed its owner by producing sour fruit rather than good fruit.

Second Reading Philippians 4:6-9 We are promised that if we commit every situation to God and focus on the good things God gives, we shall know God's peace whatever happens.

Gospel Matthew 21:33-43 Jesus tells a parable to show that just as the people of God often rejected God's messengers, the prophets, for selfish reasons, so they will also reject Jesus.

Burkina Faso: Our appeal this year has raised the sum £932.14. You will remember the parish, as part of our centenary celebrations in 2008/2009, promised on-going support by holding an appeal annually. Every single penny raised over the last 18 years has gone to help the Bernardine Sisters spread the Gospel in one of the most poorest countries in the world. So thank you for your continued and generous support.

Mass for Healthcare Workers: doctors, nurses, pharmacists, receptionists, porters, chaplains and many more are invited to Mass with our bishop on Saturday 17th Oct at 12.15 in Lancaster Cathedral. There will be a chance to meet up with other Catholic healthcare workers over a cup of tea in the social centre afterwards.

The Food Bank: Contributions are most welcome, and still most necessary. Please bring stuff to Masses or the Presbytery any time.

SJSP Ukulele Orchestra: still strumming away at St. Peter's at 7pm on Monday evenings, and everyone welcome.
